Guys, so, you are three, five, eight. I'm going to write a number from one to ten. Is it? You are eight.

Number from one to ten. One. Four.

Three. Ten. Eight.

Two. Six. No, from one to ten.

Two. Three. Four.

Yes, Nicole said four. No, this is the line. No, Nicole said four.

I think you didn't say five, right? No, I didn't say it. Five. Five, excellent.

Valeria. I knew it. So, you were cheating.

No, because it was written on the hand. Did you see what it was? Yes, because it was written on the hand. I said, no, I said three, I said eight, and over there, I saw it, and I said no.

Okay, Valeria, then. Camera, stream. Streams.

Yes. What? No. Can I explain? No, no, no, no, no, no.

You stand there. Imagine that this is the screen of the news. That is the screen.

That's why it says, Janice. Valeria in family. Valeria in family.

Okay, yes, that is. We're going to listen to the sad story, or crazy story, or happy story. How about you adopt a millionaire family? That would be excellent.

And... Okay, you can start. I was sitting in class when somebody, somebody. Suddenly.

Suddenly. It was a big and strange spaceship. Landed outside the school.

That alien walking toward me. And told me something. Only.

Only. That is. I was.

It's okay, it's okay. If I were allergic, it would mean my rare family. Leave another client.

And left me. One year. Two problems.

Okay. If I were allergic, maybe one day they would finally come back for me. Okay.

Is that. No, no, no. She wanted to say.

The compliment. That's it. Or a message.

No, it was like how you were adopted. Okay. Waitantico.

Number two. What happened? It's your turn. Tomas? Okay, Tomas, go ahead.

Very good. Yes? Claro que si. Tomas, tomo tu turn.

Ahorita sigues tu. Two, and after the three, and after the four, and after the five. And Eliana, and Juane.

Okay. I remember one day my parents told me that I was born on a morbid violence. But for some strange reason, I was born normal.

My parents visit every weekend. And they give me objects from my daytime homework. Like special slime, monster eyes, and other things that I saw on Shane.

On Shane? Yes. Okay. Very good.

O sea, Tomas is a Martian. And... Que no se ve como Martian. Y por eso lo adoptaron en la tierra.

Yes, because imagine. Mira, ese es el... Como la pantalla de la tele de Breaking News. Para la interview.

Yes, you can do it. Okay, very good. They said go.

Mira, si quieres, if you need, si necesitas, yo te acompaño. A que se pare en la cosa de la pantalla. No, yo la acompaño al lado.

That is... That is... Okay. Yes, go to the bathroom. Ready, Lisette? I think... Never mind.

Oh my gosh. She knows my legs. Oh... Of course not, pero after Eliana you go.

Can you please close the door? No, no, no, it's okay. Okay, we're going to listen to Eliana and her... Tragical story. More things.

Okay, so you were picked up from the trash? Yes. Wow. That is so sad.

I'm sorry. No, I am glad for you because you were adopted. They found you and those things.

Yes, imagine you were in the trash. You wouldn't survive so long. No, it's a lie.

It's Lisette's turn. Did you finish? Do you want to go now? For today, Lisette. Yes, you can go.

Okay, let's listen to Lisette. No, I don't want to listen. Of course you do.

If you want to. Lisette, breathe. It's okay.

No problem. Murder. Two people.

Two people? Okay. They were abused and murdered and they adopted me. Okay.

So your parents were murdered. Those killed. Okay.

Well, not okay. That is so sad, but... Okay, next one is... Number three. Esteban.

Okay, let's listen to Esteban then. Without the bubblegum, please. Okay, a floss.

And they have a farm there. Everything was going well until the Islamic terrorists arrived at the farm. They took my whole skin and they threw it into the lake.

And they made a way into my father's living room. He paid my most precious pension. So they decided to hide me inside a box.

Inside a box full of cheese. They decided to hide me inside a box full of ruins. They didn't come to the box.

They sent me to Cuba and then to the United States. During my time in Cuba, I learned how to own tools. And of course, I owned some of them.

The same time, I had a mission where I become the President of the United States. After the mission, I adopted this idea. But to make it a reality, I needed to escape home to my home.

I made a boat with the leaves of pears. I used catapults and rocks as a roof to keep the boat afloat. The next day, I escaped from the ocean without addressing it or the ocean.

I learned how to survive that. But suddenly, a family of fishermen started adopting and teaching how to catch shrimps. Now, I am a businessman who has one of the biggest companies of food in the world.

I will be always thankful with my adoptive father and mother because they teach me how to adopt. Namaste. She is there.

Namaste. Sorry. Yes.

Very, very, very. All because my voice. I mean, do you know who was listening to your story? What? Aliens.

The Fatal on Aliens, but it's a game. Guess what? Nicole. Guys, Nicole's story is very particular.

So, listen to that, please. She says. When I grew up, my family and I realized that I wasn't alike to my sister, yes? You know, my sister is white, very white, and brown, and she has, what did you say, freckles? Freckles.

Freckles. Yes. And... So, we, my mom and dad and I did a DNA test.

DNA test, yes. And we did this test and we discovered that I was switched in the hospital, yes? And I was, and I was given to other family. My mother tells me that, but what would you do in that situation? Okay.

Okay, guys. Question for all. What would you do in Nicole's situation? What would you do? Nothing.

What was the situation? That wasn't the main situation, let's see. What was the situation? Okay, I'll give you something to tell me what Nicole said. Me.

Except Nicole. Lizette. What was the story that Nicole told? That Nicole told? Yes.

That she had a sister who had freckles. No, that wasn't the main situation. That she had a sister who had freckles.

Yes, but that wasn't the situation. What was the situation? The situation was that she has a sister and they don't like, they don't seem to like her sister. Okay.

She made a DNA test to verify that she was a real sister. And it wasn't. So, probably they would change to the first person.

Yes. That is funny. Guys, the situation is that.

I was here, but I was listening. And I was watching everyone on the cell phone. Everyone.

And I knew that they weren't listening. So. Look, they're going to make Nicole cry.

You see? Guys, Nicole's story was that when she grew up, she didn't look like her sister. They were very different. And they decided to do a DNA test and they realized that she wasn't a daughter.

And they had exchanged her at birth. Let's go. But guessing.

Guessing. You see? I know, I know. There.

I need to hear from you. Three. No.

Yes, three. Valeria. Of course it is.

Yes, two. Two. Tomás.

Tomás, yes. Juanse, let me listen. Come on.

Yes. I just want to hear you. Sara, I can hear you.

Well, then you stay. But Juanse is leaving. Read it, read it.

No problem. When I was very young, my parents disappeared during a terrible accident. Nobody knew what happened to them.

But I was left completely alone. If I were adopted, it would be me because I am a kind mother who decided to leave to give me a home when I had no one else. Growing up, I would often think about my parents and wonder if they were still alive somewhere.

Some days I would feel sad and lost, remembering the little things about them. However, I would try to stay strong and continue my life. I would also feel grateful to the family that adopted me and helped me to start a new chapter.

Okay. That was so sad. That was very sad.

That was a real, adult history. That was a real situation. It's always like that.

Yes? Yes. Well, about the aliens, it doesn't sound real. And the Islamic terrorists.

So bad. Yes. Yes, I know.

Sara, would you like to... Sara, please say your story. I realized that I was adopted when I was ten years old. Ten? Yes.

Okay. However, I didn't trust because my family was too funny. It was a normal day in the school.

I was with my friends learning new things, doing homework and activities. I felt that the same of all the days. When I arrived to my house, I found my parents in the living room.

And I was surprised because they never did that. I asked, but none of them responded. When I sat on the sofa, they told me that I was adopted.

But I didn't think that was real. Furthermore, they put me in a box. They put you in a box? Okay.

In the box, they took a photo. And in this moment, I realized that it was true. And I started making questions, but I was too sad and I decided to leave the house.

Okay. So you left the house when you realized that you were adopted. Yes.

Wow. And now you live alone. Guys, thank you for your stories.

Actually, your story was a bit perturbing. There were too many things that happened to you.

Okay.

You're welcome. This is the basic. But you can say, it's nothing.

It's nothing. Or you can say, it's my pleasure. Nothing.

Please, no. Of nothing. Oh my gosh.

You're welcome. No, no, no. You're welcome is... Thank you.

Sorry, it's nothing. No, it's the same. You're welcome or you're welcome is nothing.

And when you want to say, you're welcome, it's the same. It's the same. It's the same.

But then you have to give it a context. So, you're welcome or... It's just that normally they don't say, you're welcome. They just say, welcome, or you can come anytime you want.

But no, that you're welcome, it's not common. Welcome. Welcome.

Welcome.
