Yes, could be any of all the things. No, it's an interview. No worries.

Do you want this out again? Okay. If I currently find out that I am adopted, I would like to know about my biological parents, my family history and ask them many things about me and my personality. Okay.

I would be angry with my adopted parents. Furthermore, they didn't tell me in the past. Like they didn't tell you first, okay? They didn't.

Okay, so open. No, it was okay. Isabel, you go.

It's okay, no worries. Breathe. Breathe.

She's hating me in this one. What do you have? Eve? I was adopted because... My mother died and a parent didn't take responsibility. He gave me love from adoption.

Okay, because your mother died. Okay. My adoptive parents were looking for me and I feel good with that because they love me.

And that's it. Do you have something else? No, it's okay? Okay, no. Of course you do.

My adoptive parents were looking for me and I feel good with that because they love me. I'm grateful with my parents who have given me everything. Your mother died and your father didn't take responsibility.

Okay, great. Thank you for your participation.
